project deladanse is looking for dancers

29.03.2024 and 05.04.2024

deladanse

is a site-specific project, performed at outdoor arts festivals.

Each choreography is composed one day in advance, on, with and for the location, making each performance site-specifically unique.

Movement vocabulary is build per performance where selected choreographic methods, the location and the input of the dancers are a vital contribution.

The methods used have their origins in the broad field of improvisation techniques and choreographic composition.
